MUZRAI DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE NOTE.

Subject.

Repairs to the Maṭṭe Baneswara Swami temple and Malali Gopalaswami temple in the Heggadadevana Kote Taluk.

LAST REFERENCE:—

Letter No. 212 dated 18th February 1904 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District.

The question of repairing the above temples which are muzrai institutions, was mooted in the Dassara Representative Assembly of 1897. Vide subject No 438.

No 350 d: 8.9.98.

The Deputy Commissioner was thereupon requested to report upon the conditions of the temples and to inform the devotees that the repairs of the temples would be taken up provided they contribute not less than half the estimated cost.

No 70 d: 30.1.99

The Dy Comr stated that both of them stood in need of repairs and enclosed 2 Estimates amounting to Rs 729-3-0 and Rs 1896-4-0 respectively, the one for repairing the Baneswara Swami temple and the other for repairing the Gopalaswami temple and further that the people of Nagge had executed a Muchalika promising to Contribute one-third of the Estimated cost and that that the Contributions amounting to Rs 632 for repairing the Gopalaswami temple had been paid and kept in the Savings Bank.

The then Muzrai Secretary stated that unless the donors RC 663 d: 22.12.99 interested in the temples had Contributed and actually paid into the Treasury one half of the Estimated cost of repairs, as laid down in the late Chief Commissioner's Circular No 4 dated 3.10.1871, the repairs Estimate could not be sanctioned and the devotees might be informed accordingly.

The Dy Comr now submits for sanction the Estimate RC 212 d: 18.2.04.
amounting to Rs 1896-4-0 for repairing the Malali Gopalaswami temple and states that the devotees have contributed Rs 922-3-6 and it is deposited in the Govt Savings Bank, that the interest for 1902-03 viz Rs 26-12-0 being added on to it comes to Rs 948-15-6 and that as the repairs are very essential, the moiety of the Estimated amount from the Govt may be paid and the Estimate sanctioned.

From the correspondence it is also seen that the contributions have been ~~paid by~~ made good by the two Sowcars persons, Malali Patel Dasegauda and Chattarchandi Dasegauda bin Puttanna and that the first of the two requests that the repair-works may be entrusted to him.

As regards the repairs of the Nagge temple, it is seen Subd that the payment of the Contribution is not so readily made as the promise had been & that the Estimate has therefore been not recommended by the Dy Comr.

If the Estimate is sanctioned the amount will have to be sanctioned from the State Grant, is Rs (947-4-6).

Submitted for orders

ds
27/2/04

A grant of Rs 947-4-6 from the State Grant may be sanctioned in the case of the Malali Gopalaswami temple as the devotees have come forwards with a liberal contribution of half the cost

The work may be entrusted to Patel Dase Gowda who has contributed handsomely and who will, as a devotee, probably do the work well.

The Amildar should of course supervise the work
